1. Course Introduction

This class assumes NO KNOWLEDGE of law. Company Law 2 is NOT REQUIRED to take this class. Anyone interested in understanding law or business should consider this course. Anyone interested in starting or running their own business would gain substantial practical understanding from this course.

Individually, it is quite hard for any single person to accomplish anything substantial. Many individuals combined, however, can change the world. Corporations are the tool for bringing together disparate individuals into a collective group to perform the tasks of a company. There are, however, several very different forms of these organizations, each with their own benefits and drawbacks. This course will examine these different forms, along with their strengths and weaknesses, while focusing on the most significant form of business organization, the limited liability corporation.

NO BACKGROUND IN LAW IS NECESSARY. This course is designed from a businessperson's perspective, about how to organize a small, medium, or large business to maximize your benefit and minimize tax, liability, control, and agency issues. The focus will be mostly on European, North American, and Asian corporate law, but we will examine parts of the law in many countries. Also, remember most of the principles of business organizations are reasonably universal. This class will be useful for people starting their own businesses, operating a family business, working at a large company, and everyone in between.
